Francophone Immigration outside of Quebec

Gabrielle Fortin

International Mobility Specialist, Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultant, Member of ICCRC with good standing, and Board Member. Gabrielle F. Fortin is also the Founder and President of the Avis Immigration. After earning a Bachelor's Degree in Public Affairs and International Relations from Laval University in Quebec City. While completing a practicum in Yellowknife, Gabrielle discovered her passion for immigration. Immediately afterward, while on the Canadian west coast, Gabrielle worked as a settlement officer and then as a coordinator for the BC Francophone Immigration Network.

Gabrielle will talk about the below topics:

- What are the immigration options for Francophones outside Quebec;
- International Experience Canada and Francophones; WHV, YP, COOP;
- Francophone mobility Work permit;
- BO-429 Significant advantage (extension) to francophone mobility; and
- Transition through Express Entry for Francophones.
