

CPD for Immigration Professionals

3.5 hour online sessions presented by an experienced ICCRC Member and a former Supervisor with Citizenship and Immigration Canada

March 25, 2017

11.00 am – 2:30 pm EST

Spousal Sponsorship and the New Rules

Presented by: Dani Willetts

3.5 CPD Hours

Spousal Sponsorship and the New Rules

Dani Willetts

Regulated Canadian Immigration Consultant, Member in good standing of ICCRC, and a former Supervisor, with Citizenship and Immigration Canada. Dani is an experienced decision-maker, policy writer, supervisor, trainer, public speaker and interviewer. Dani has had extensive opportunities to work in immigration intelligence, natural justice, and providing advice and guidance to Immigration staff and external partners across the country.

Dani will talk about the following topics:

- Spousal Sponsorship: What has changed?
- How to interview my client (gathering case facts)
- Eligibility requirements for In Canada applications
- Eligibility requirements for Overseas applications
- Pros and Cons of the two streams
- Why do applications get denied?
- How to compile a strong and evidenced application package
- Misrepresentation in spousal cases
- Appeal process and what to expect
- Practice tips (common sponsorship applications challenges): application submission challenges, how to contact IRCC, importance of updating client's family status, etc.

To register: Please email us at (neskarous@canadiancareeracademy.com) or call us at 1-403-401-2017, expressing your interest in attending the above webinar and one of our representatives will contact you.

This event is a part of our famous 16 CPD hour bundle offer and will be included in the $160.00 price of the bundle if you book a bundle.

To book this event separately, the fee for the event is CAD$ 80.00 but if you will register for more than one event, you will receive a 25% discount and a special promotional code for discounts on future events.